Additional Funding Resources and Announcements

Community Partnership Mini Grants Initiative. The DC Trust is announcing the FY16 Community Partnerships Mini Grants Initiative. This grant opportunity is for non-profit organizations and individuals that serve DC residents to address key community priorities in select communities across the District. The Community Partnerships Mini Grants will support programming in the areas of violence prevention and mediation, mentoring, youth enrichment programs, and family supports. Preference will be given to organizations/individuals that have a strong track record of performance with DC Department of Parks and Recreation (DPR), DC Public Schools (DCPS), DC Housing Authority (DCHA), and/or the DC Trust. DC Trust will hold information sessions for organizations and individuals interested in applying for Community Partnership Mini Grants. It is MANDATORY that applicants attend one of the following grant technical assistance sessions on the following dates and times; Wednesday, September 2 from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. and Tuesday, September 22, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. Both sessions will be held at the Office of the Deputy Mayor for Greater Economic Opportunity located at 2235 Shannon Place SE, Suite 3040. For more information visit <http://dctrust.org/grants/available-grants/>.

Previous Funding Resources and Announcements

Grants and In-Kind Services. The Redwoods Group Corporation is offering grants and in-kind services to nonprofit organizations to support programs and projects that make people safer, with a specific focus on aquatic safety, child abuse prevention, transportation safety, employee's safety and emergency preparedness. They provide non-financial sources of capital, such as in-kind consulting and staff training, as well as cash grants. Deadline to submit an application is September 28. For more information visit <http://www.redwoodsgroup.com/about-us/redwoods-giving/>

Washington Architectural Foundation Pro Bono Design Services. The Washington Architectural Foundation (WAF), the nonprofit arm of the Washington, DC, chapter of the American Institute of Architects (AIA|DC), is offering pro bono assistance to provide conceptual preliminary designs to nonprofit and community organizations that could not otherwise afford professional design services. Volunteer architects have worked on more than 180 projects in the fields of architecture, landscape architecture, interior design, space planning and more. WAF can help both mature and emerging groups meet housing, accessibility, health care, education, homeless services, artistic, cultural, and community development needs at the neighborhood level. Projects have ranged from highly complex ones like the recent volunteer-led transformation of eight public school libraries on Capitol Hill to space planning for the Bright Beginnings Child Development Center. Design services are primarily intended for nonprofits in the District of Columbia, although projects in the Washington, DC Metropolitan Area are also considered. For a list of past projects and the design services project application form, go to www.wafonline/community-design-services or contact Daniel Fox at dfox@aiadc.com.

Healthy Communities Recognized. The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Culture of Health Prize honors outstanding community efforts and partnerships that are helping people live healthier lives. Up to ten winning communities will each receive a $25,000 cash prize and have their success stories celebrated and shared broadly with the goal of raising awareness and inspiring locally-driven change across the country. For the purposes of this prize, "a community" is defined as one of the following: town/village, city, county, tribe or tribal community, Native Hawaiian organization, or region (such as contiguous towns, cities, or counties). The Phase 1 application deadline is November 12, 2015. Visit the Foundation's website to review the call for applications Healthy Communities.

FUNDING ALERT

Free Home Internet for Low-income DC Families. Connect.DC, the District's digital inclusion program, is partnering with EveryoneOn, Byte Back, and the United Planning Organization to provide six months of free home Internet service ($60 value) to 500 DC families with school-aged children. This project is designed to help low-income children use technology to succeed in school. For more information visit <http://connect.dc.gov/free-internet>.
